

Patrick Kennedy

Patrick has been Head Coach of the Greenwich Marlins since January of 2022. Prior to that Patrick lived in Dallas, Texas where he was the Head Senior Coach at Texas Ford Aquatics in Frisco, Texas. Prior to joining TFA, he was the Assistant Head Coach at Metroplex Aquatics in Allen, Texas, and Senior Coach at City of Plano Swimmers in Plano, Texas.

Patrick has coached swimmers to Top 100 All-Time in age group rankings, Texas State Champions, Connecticut Age Group and Senior State Champions, YMCA Nationals Finalists/Medalists, Futures, Junior National and Olympic Trial qualifiers.

Patrick swam for City of Plano Swimmers and Plano Senior High School. While on COPS, he was a multiple time TAGS finalist and NJO qualifier in the 100 and 200 breaststroke. He was also a Texas State Record holder in the 15-16 boys 200 freestyle relay. Patrick graduated from the University of Arkansas where he competed for the Razorbacks for 4 years. He is still an active competitor in Masters swimming, having finished 2nd in the 200 meter breaststroke and 3rd in the 100 meter breaststroke at the 2017 USMS National Championship. In 2019, Patrick won the "Go the Distance" National Championship for the 45-49 age group.

Patrick's coaching philosophy is one of team excellence through creating a family-like culture where athletes work together through goal setting, personal accountability, and high standards to achieve excellence. Patrick is an ASCA Level 3 Certified Coach.